Reserve Patrol Officer Employment

The town of York is a coastal community in southern Maine, encompassing (56) fifty-six square miles. York enjoys a year-round population base of 15,000 with tourist influx of 50,000 to 60,000. The town has an extensive colonial heritage and is dedicated to promoting tourism through numerous parks, several beautiful beaches, and a large harbor area.

The York Police Department is a progressive law enforcement agency of twenty-eight (28) full-time officers, fifteen (15) reserve officers, three (3) community service officers, eight (8) full-time communications specialists and a support staff of four (4). Our department utilizes a progressive community policing philosophy in providing patrol, investigative, and community resource services.

The York Police Department utilizes both uniformed mountain bike and foot beat patrols for coverage of the more populated areas in York. Officers are encouraged to participate in all aspects of the agency and in many of the community related programs the department offers during the year. This allows officers to enhance their own abilities and build their resumes for future full time employment.

The York Police Department offers competitive pay, time and a half after forty hours, and pays per diem for various training courses. Applicants will attend, or have successfully competed, the Maine Criminal Justice Academy Law Enforcement Pre-Service Training. Successful completion certifies an individual as a Reserve Officer in Maine. All officers receive the opportunity to attend additional in-service training. The department pays all costs for training, uniforms and equipment necessary to perform your duties. Reserve Officers are able to work outside details at $30.00 an hour in addition to your regular assigned duties.

The York Police Department is presently seeking qualified applicants for our program. Reserve officers are employed on a 40 hour work week full time basis from June through Labor Day. Additional shifts and details are usually available to be worked during the off season.

An employment application is attached. Candidates should fill this out completely. Resumes along with an 800 word essay on "A contemporary issue facing law enforcement and how you would address that issue" are required to be submitted with the application.

York Police Patrol Division

The Patrol Division of the York Police Department is under the immediate supervision of Lieutenant Owen T. Davis. York is a unique place to live, to visit, and to work. Just as unique is the Patrol Division of the York Police Department.

The uniformed Patrol Division consists of four Sergeants, sixteen Patrolman, fifteen Reserve Officers and three Community Service Officers.

Whether by marked police cruiser, unmarked police cruiser, police mountain bicycle, motorcycle, or on foot patrol, the Patrol Division provides 24-hour police services to the 56 square miles of the Town of York.

Each of our patrol cars is equipped with the most modern computers to assist the officers in positively accomplishing their daily tasks. Within seconds, officers can check to see if someone is wanted, a car is stolen, or a driver is suspended, all from their laptops. Each front line cruiser has a medical trauma kit, Defibrillator unit, oxygen bottle, and other tools to assist officers in the performance of their duties.

Patrol is considered the backbone of the police department. Responding to a variety of calls including criminal, civil, and emergency medical calls, patrol officers are trained in handling any situation that may arise. In addition to responding to urgent needs, officers provide crime prevention services such as residential patrol, house checks, security surveys, directed speed enforcement, business and school visits, and informational programs on a wide array of topics.

The Patrol Division strives to provide quality, professional police protection and services through a strong integrated relationship with the community. The policing strategy of patrol is that of proactive policing through community involvement.

We hold ourselves accountable to the citizens we serve and take pride in a professional level of service to all our citizens, as well as those who visit or travel through our community. We will treat all citizens with dignity, respect, and honesty.
