If you are appealing a decision of the Code Enforcement Officer, the Planning Board, or any other Board/Committee or member of Town Staff whose decision is appealable by Ordinance to the Board of Appeals and you ARE NOT the Owner of the property in question, then you must complete an "Evidence of Standing" statement.

Town of York – Board of Appeals

Evidence of Standing for Administrative Appeal

It is the burden of the applicant to present evidence sufficient to the Board to satisfactorily demonstrate that he or she has suffered, or will suffer, a "direct and personal injury" as a result of the decision being appealed. Describe below (attach additional sheets if necessary) how 1) your actual use or enjoyment of your property will be adversely affected by the proposed project, or 2) show some other personal interest which will be directly affected which is different from that suffered by the general public:
